Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica 9th November

The Church of St. John Lateran is the Cathedral Church of Rome, which means that is in the Church the Cathedra or Bishops Chair is situated. When Pope Leo exercises his position as Bishop of Rome, he does this from the Cathedra in the Basilillica of St. John Lateran and not from St. Peters. It is a beautiful place, filled with history and definat must if visiting the Eternal City. But todays feast day focuses on us, the people of God who are living stones of the Church, more so than physical buildings. Let us be wothy of the calling we receive in Baptism.
